

Kathy J. Stickel

Director, Office of Management Services

Kathy J. Stickel is the Director of the Office of Management Services (OMS) for the Tennessee Comptroller of the Treasury. Kathy is responsible for directing the fiscal, facilities and human resources operations for the Comptroller's Office. Kathy and her division also provide statewide oversight of procurements, including compliance reviews. She is staff to the Comptroller for the State Building Commission.

Kathy began her career with the Comptroller's Office in 1995 as an auditor in the Division of State Audit. Kathy assumed increasing levels of responsibility including management of the statewide Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. In 2008, she was promoted to Assistant Director in State Audit and was transferred to OMS as an Assistant Director in 2012. She became the Director of OMS in 2016.

Kathy is a graduate of Murray State University and the University of Kentucky where she received a Masters of Accountancy. She is also a Certified Public Accountant and a Certified Government Financial Manager. Kathy is a member of the Tennessee Government Executive Institute Class of 2006, and is a former chapter president of the Association of Government Accountants.

Kathy is married with two children and two stepdaughters. She enjoys watching her children play sports and traveling. Kathy also has a soft spot for stray dogs and cats, which leads to a full household.
