INVESTIGATIVE REPORT

Hawkins County Board of Education

The Office of the Comptroller of the Treasury investigated possible malfeasance related to a contractor for the Hawkins County Board of Education.

INVESTIGATIVE RESULTS

• Former contracted certified operator Shawn Hatchett received $64,800 in fees for work he did not perform

During the period of April 8, 2011, through December 12, 2017, former contracted certified operator Shawn Hatchett fraudulently claimed and received $64,800 in fees from the Hawkins County Board of Education (school system). Since at least February 1998, the school system had retained Mr. Hatchett to perform required tests for onsite wastewater treatment systems at certain schools. The most recent contract between the school system and Mr. Hatchett was dated August 2008. As part of that agreement, Mr. Hatchett was to complete Discharge Monitoring Reports [DMRs] documenting the results of his tests and provide them to the school system for filing with the Tennessee Department of Environment and Conservation. Mr. Hatchett asserted on the signed-and-filed DMRs that he performed the required tests at the Town of Rogersville<sup>1</sup> sewer treatment plant laboratory, designated "Rog STP" on the form. [Refer to Exhibit 1.] There were no logs, notes, or records of any kind establishing that Mr. Hatchett had used the department's laboratory facilities to perform the required tests. Town employees that managed, directed, and oversaw all day-to-day operations at the sewer treatment plant since April 2011 advised Comptroller investigators that samples from schools' onsite systems had not been tested at their facility.

The Comptroller of the Treasury issued a separate Investigative Report – Town of Rogersville Water Department dated April 18, 2018, related to Mr. Hatchett's employment with the town's utility department. The report may be accessed and viewed at http://www.comptroller.tn.gov/repository/ia/rogersvillewaterdepartment.pdf.
